Great depth of colour in the glass, almost black. Earthy aromas of blackcurrants, prunes, liquorice and coffee. Complex layers of black fruit flavours with notes of mint and herbs all underpinned by forward tannins and excellent acidity.

Charlie Chaplin

- 230 -

Created and originally served at New York's old Waldorf-Astoria prior to 1920, this drink is named after Sir Charles Spencer "Charlie" Chaplin who was at the height of his career during the creation of this cocktail. Charlie Chaplin famously honeymooned at the Metropole Hanoi in 1936. The classic recipe combines Gin, Apricot Brandy and lime juice to create the perfect serve.

Pre-Prohibition

1806 - 1920

FLORADORA

230

This classic is an homage to the six, scandalously beautiful young ladies who danced in the 1900 musical 'Florodora' in New York City. Gin, raspberries, lime and ginger soda.

SIDE CAR

270

There is some speculation about the birthplace of this tippie at the end of World War I, it gained traction at Harry's New York Bar in Paris. A refreshing blend of Cognac, Triple Sec and lemon.

HANKY PANKY

250

Created by Ada 'Coley' Coleman – the legendary and only female Head Bartender at London's Savoy, this potent cocktail sure packs a punch with Gin, Sweet Vermouth and Fernet.

Prohibition

1920 - 1933

SCOFFLAW

250

Appropriately named after the term given to those who clandestinely sipped spirits throughout Prohibition. A mix of American Whiskey, Dry Vermouth, grenadine, lime and orange bitters.

SOUTHSIDE FIZZ

230

New York's 21 Club lays claim to the recipe as part of its Prohibition-era menu, some place the conception some 40 years earlier at the Southside Sportsmen's Club. Regardless of origin this combination of Gin, mint, lime and sugar are irresistible. Served tall with soda.

HOTEL NACIONALE

230

Named after the Havana bar that played host to a notorious set of celebrities back in its heyday, the Hotel Nacional cocktail combines Dark and Light Rum, Apricot Liqueur, pineapple and lime juice.

Post-Prohibition

1933 - Present

OLD FASHIONED FLAVOURS

270

Metropole Hanoi's house-take on an Old Fashioned style drink with Bourbon, Laphroaig Whisky, ginger syrup and tart cherry saffron bitters.

BELL RINGER

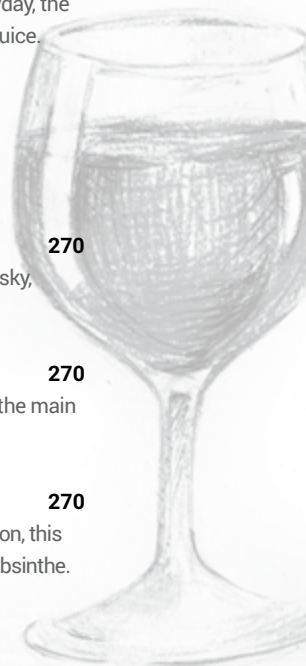

270

Combining the locally loved flavour of Banana-Slower into a syrup and grapefruit juice lend the main flavour profile to this Margarita style drink with Don Julio Tequila providing the body.

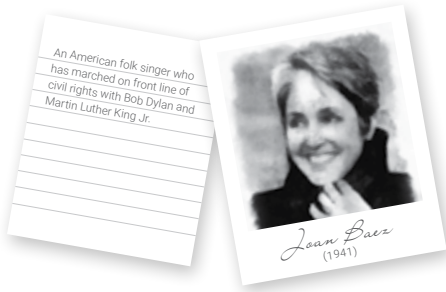

REMEMBER THE MAINE

270

Described first by spirits writer Charles H. Baker in his 1939 classic, the Gentleman's Companion, this cousin of the Manhattan combines American Whiskey, Sweet Vermouth, Cherry Brandy and Absinthe.
