CHINA - JINAN

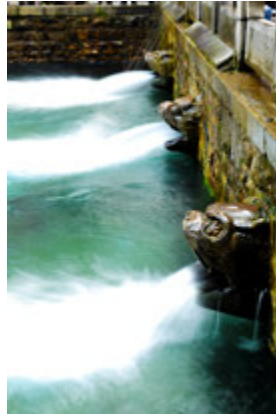

JINAN

The capital of Shandong province in Eastern China, played an important role in the history of the region from the earliest beginnings of civilization and has evolved into a major national administrative, economic, and transportation hub. Jinan is often referred to as the 'Spring City' for its well-known 72 artesian springs inside urban area.

JINAN - ATTRACTIONS

BAOTU SPRING

Baotu Spring is a culturally significant artesian karst spring located in the city of Jinan, Shandong Province, China. It is mentioned in the Spring and Autumn Annals, one of the Five Classics of Chinese One Spring under the Heaven by the Qing Dynasty Emperor Qian Long.

DA MING LAKE PARK

Daming Lake is the largest lake in the city of Jinan, Shandong, China and one of city's main natural and cultural landmarks. Located to the north of the historical city center, the lake is fed by the artesian karst springs of the area and hence retains a fairly constant water level through the entire year.

SOFITEL JINAN SILVER PLAZA
