COMMITMENT TO QUALITY

Meet with Mercure

We're committed to quality at Mercure. From industry research and listening to what our customers say, we have developed an understanding of what both meeting planners and delegates truly demand from their meetings which has helped us draw up our meeting promises...

We promise to take ownership of your meeting

You'll find our staff friendly, knowledgeable and helpful at all times. To ensure your meeting runs smoothly, we promise a dedicated contact point to take ownership of your event – from the first enquiry to booking confirmation and from our personal meet and greet when you arrive, through your meeting sessions and breaks, to the minute you depart.

We promise to understand the objective of your meeting

We'll ask all the questions needed to give us a full picture of your meeting and help us understand what's most important to you. Only then can we expect to provide the perfect environment to suit your needs, and help you plan and deliver.

We promise to be flexible and responsive

Choose from all-inclusive or bespoke packages. You'll find our rates are consistently competitive and our levels of service second to none. We also promise to respond with availability and outline costs immediately, and follow up with a full proposal in line with your requirements and deadline.

We promise to keep you refreshed and refuelled

We offer fresh, varied and healthy food and drink options that are developed in line with the season and use locally sourced ingredients wherever possible.

We promise quality assurance

We're committed to ensuring the successful delivery of every aspect of your meeting and guarantee every experience at a Mercure hotel. We'll work fast to resolve any problem, however small.

We promise more than just a meeting room

Mercure hotels are diverse, so we hope you'll find time to explore other areas at your venue. Where available, our public spaces, leisure facilities, gardens, grounds and even spas can add extra inspiration to your meeting experience.

...all to guarantee a successful meeting

LOCALLY INSPIRED EXPERIENCES

Meet with Mercure extends far beyond our meeting spaces!

If you're organising a residential meeting or looking to make your meeting truly memorable then our locally inspired experiences are perfect for you.

Break away from your meeting space to escape the routine of your event completely with a unique experience that takes inspiration from the hotel's setting and surroundings including:

- Visit to Salts Mill in Saltaire, a world heritage site, to take a relaxing break and experience works of art from David Hockney in a truly unique setting.
- Take a short trip to visit the Bronte Parsonage museum in Haworth followed by afternoon cream teas on the cobbled streets.
- Why not enjoy lunch as you travel through the spectacular countryside as you ride on the Keighley and Worth Valley steam railway.

Sound interesting? It doesn't stop there. Whatever your idea of an inspiring experience, contact your event sales planner to discuss your event.
