This journey begins with the intention to offer a culinary experience that stays true to its essence, honest in flavor, yet open to new ideas. In the hands of our Executive Chef, every dish becomes part of a thoughtfully curated selection, presenting a varied menu, not just a wide range of options, but a lineup shaped with clear direction and character.

Every step in the cooking process is guided by sustainable and environmentally mindful principles, from choosing ingredients to preparation methods, all the way to managing energy and waste. Together, these elements form a narrative that doesn't highlight a single dish, but rather emphasizes that cuisine can be a responsible, well-planned, and warmly enjoyable journey for everyone.

Perjalanan ini dimulai dari menghadirkan pengalaman kuliner yang apa adanya, jujur pada rasa, namun tetap terbuka pada ide-ide baru. Di tangan seorang executive chef, seluruh sajian disusun sebagai pilihan yang benar-benar dikurasi, menampilkan menu yang beragam, bukan sekadar banyak pilihan, tetapi rangkaian yang disusun dengan arah dan karakter yang jelas.

Setiap langkah dalam proses memasak dijalankan dengan prinsip hidup yang berkelanjutan dan ramah lingkungan, mulai dari pemilihan bahan, cara pengolahan, hingga bagaimana energi dan limbah dikelola. Semua itu membentuk sebuah cerita yang tidak menonjolkan satu hidangan pun, melainkan menekankan bahwa kuliner bisa menjadi perjalanan yang bertanggung jawab, terencana, dan tetap hangat untuk dinikmati siapa saja.

Soto Betawi

Born in the heart of Jakarta, Soto Betawi blends creamy coconut milk and tender beef into a bowl rich with heritage. Each spoonful bursts with deep savory notes, lifted by lemongrass, kaffir lime, and a hint of nutmeg. It's not just a dish — it's a reflection of Betawi culture: warm, generous, and full of diversity.

Soto Ayam Lamongan

A bowl of warmth from East Java. Its clear golden broth, slow cooked with native chicken and fragrant spices, carries a comforting aroma that feels like home. The finishing touch of savory “koya” gives it a unique character. More than just soup, it tells a story of patience, tradition, and the love passed down through generations.

Empal Gentong

Local hero from Cirebon, a coastal town on the northern edge of Java Island, where spices once traveled across oceans. Slow-cooked in a clay pot over charcoal, the beef absorbs turmeric, coriander, and coconut milk until it turns meltingly tender. Every bite carries that comforting Javanese richness, savory, warm, and lightly kissed with smoke. A taste that feels as if time stood still.

Nasi Ayam Betutu

From the island of Bali — where rituals meet aroma — comes Ayam Betutu, slow-cooked in Bali's signature bumbu 'base genep' spice blend. Turmeric, galangal, lemongrass, and kaffir lime leaves wrap the chicken in layers of deep, earthy flavor. Once reserved for sacred ceremonies, today it brings the soul of Bali to every plate — warm, bold, and timeless.

Laksa Medan

Laksa Medan is where cultures meet — Malay, Chinese, and Indian — all in one fragrant bowl. The coconut-based broth is rich with turmeric, candlenut, and lemongrass, wrapping around soft noodles, shrimp, and boiled egg. Every spoonful tells a story of Medan's vibrant streets, where flavors collide and harmony happens naturally
