DISCOVER · LOCAL ·

The rich culture and artisanal traditions of Małopolska serve as our inspiration, from which we draw abundantly, presenting our guests with the culinary heritage of our region. This heritage is based not only on dishes and recipes passed down from generation to generation but also on folk artistic craftsmanship, whose traditions in the region date back to the Middle Ages. Nowadays the cultivation of these traditions is upheld by small family craft workshops. One of them, located in Lanckorona, which is the cradle of ceramics in Małopolska, specially crafted extraordinary, hand-decorated plates for us on which our local dishes are proudly served.
