Frevo Sommelier Selection

Indulge in the artistry of Brazilian churrascaria cuisine at Frevo, where the grill meets perfection. Our meticulously curated wine list is a celebration of the bold, savory flavors that define our traditional grilled meats and poultry. Each selection has been thoughtfully chosen to complement and enhance the unique character of the Frevo culinary offerings. Allow our sommelier's expertise to guide you through a symphony of tastes, where every sip harmonizes with the authenticity of our churrascaria experience.

By the Glass White:

Emotivo Pinot Grigio, Italy: AED 60 | AED 290

Background: Hailing from Lombardy, one of Italy's largest and renowned regions in the central north, Emotivo embodies a beautiful pale straw color.

Tasting notes: It boasts delicate floral aromas, accompanied by a subtle hint of citrus. This wine is light, crisp, and refreshingly adorned with citrus fruit notes.

Best goes with: It makes for an excellent pairing with white fish, mushrooms, and green salads.

Frevo pairing: Best to enjoy as aperitif with the salad bar buffet.

Mud house Sauvignon Blanc, Marlborough: AED 95 | AED 465

Background: Undoubtedly New Zealand's foremost wine region, Marlborough is renowned for its vibrant and aromatic white wines, notably crafted from the Sauvignon Blanc grape variety.

Tasting notes: This exquisite representation of Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc embodies a perfect combination of flavors. The nose captures the essence of snow pea, nettles leaves, and guava, while the palate is enriched with citrus and melon notes.

Best paired with: It harmonizes exceptionally well with shellfish and a Vegetarian cheese platter.

Frevo pairing: Best enjoyed as an aperitif with the salad bar buffet, as well as alongside a selection of the chef's special cheeses.

By The Glass Red

Santa Julia Reserva, Malbec: AED 70 | AED 340

Background: The Uco Valley (Valle de Uco) stands as a crucial winegrowing region within Mendoza, Argentina, just an hour's drive south of the city of Mendoza. It proudly houses some of the region's most renowned wines.

Tasting notes: Presenting a dark violet color with blue hues, this wine boasts a nose filled with classic Malbec aromas, evoking ripe red and black fruits such as cherries, plums, and blackberries. Additional notes of vanilla, chocolate, and snuff enhance the aromatic profile. Medium bodied, it offers soft tannins and well-balanced acidity, leading to a fruity and spicy finish.

Best paired with: This wine pairs excellently with beef and lamb dishes.

Frevo pairing: Lamb chop, Short Ribs, Picanha, Rib Eye, Smoked Tri Tip, Top Sirloin and Top Side Wagyu.

Jean Pierre Moueix Bordeaux Rouge: AED 85 | AED 410

Background: The Bordeaux region, situated in the southwest of France near the city of Bordeaux along the Garonne River, is distinguished for its wines. North of the city, the Dordogne River converges with the Garonne, creating the expansive estuary known as the Gironde. The Gironde department, boasting a vast vineyard area of 110,800 hectares, stands as the largest wine-growing region in France. Baron Philippe de Rothschild's branded wines are meticulously crafted from a blend of carefully selected wines, predominantly sourced from the esteemed appellations within the Bordeaux region.

Tasting notes: This Bordeaux blend, comprising Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, and Cabernet Franc, showcases a full bodied profile with elevated tannins, a slightly subdued acidity, and moderate alcohol content. The initial sip reveals notes of black currant, black cherry, tobacco, and plum aromas, culminating in a finish highlighted by the presence of chocolate.

Best paired with: These wines pair exceptionally well with beef and venison dishes.

Frevo pairing: Chicken Drumstick, BBQ Chicken Wings, Chicken Heart, Picanha, and Rib Eye.

By The Bottle White

Terlano, Pinot Grigio Alto Adige: AED 740

Background: Nestled in the cool and mountainous Alto Adige region in the far north of Italy, Cantina Terlano is renowned for producing some of Italy's most exceptional crisp white wines.

Tasting notes: Although adopting a more informal character, this radiant and fresh Pinot Grigio delights with pristine aromas of stone fruit and citrus.

Best paired with: It pairs perfectly with a variety of seafood dishes, including shrimp, clams, crab, mussels, and scallops.

Frevo pairing: Best to enjoy as aperitif with salads bar buffet.

By The Bottle Red

Marqués de Cáceres Reserva: AED 450

Background: Situated in the westernmost part of Spain renowned Rioja wine region, Rioja Alta is one of the three sub-regions. The majority of its vineyards are positioned south of the Ebro River. The focal point of Rioja Alta is the historic town of Haro, home to several renowned wineries. Haro also hosts an annual wine festival in June. Noteworthy producers in this sub-region include Bodegas Muga, Bodegas Marqués de Murrieta, La Rioja Alta, and Bodegas Marqués de Cáceres.

Tasting notes: This wine presents a dark and dense color, signaling its depth and richness. The intense and complex bouquet reaffirms its quality oak aging, featuring powerful aromas of blackberries and blackcurrants, complemented by a depth of toasted notes seamlessly integrating with very fine oak. The tasting experience is notably full, with concentrated flavors. It is unmistakably a wine of character and structure, yet possesses a pleasingly fleshy texture. Classy and elegant, it holds excellent potential for aging.

Best paired with: This wine complements beef, lamb, veal, and poultry dishes exceptionally well.

Frevo pairing: Lamb Chop, Short Ribs, Picanha, Rib Eye, Smoked Tri Tip, Top Sirloin, and Top Side Wagyu.
