SLING AROUND THE WORLD

The Singapore Sling was first created in 1915 at Raffles Singapore by bartender Ngiam Tong Boon. Following the turn of the century in colonial Singapore, Raffles Singapore was the gathering place for the community and Long Bar was the watering hole. It was common to see the gentlemen nursing glasses of gin or whisky. Unfortunately for the ladies, etiquette dictated they could not consume alcohol in public, and for the sake of public modesty, fruit juices and teas were their preferred beverage.

Raffles Singapore's talented bartender Mr Ngiam Tong Boon saw a niche in the market and decided to create a cocktail that looked like a fruit juice, but was actually mixed with gin and other liqueurs. Masking it in pink, gave it a feminine flair and together with the use of clear alcohol, he cleverly led people into thinking it was a socially acceptable punch for the ladies. With that, the Singapore Sling was born. It became an instant hit.

HE CHOPIN VODKA

Since 1857, Hotel Europejski has been synonymous with Warsaw's elegance and grace. To honor the hotel's 160th anniversary, Chopin Vodka created a limited edition, estate-distilled spirit, specially for its guests.

Centuries-old distillation techniques are used to create a handcrafted spirit with bold and unique flavor not typical of vodka. Made from locally-sourced Augusta potatoes and distilled in small batches, the liquid honors both the old and the new, just as the Raffles Europejski Warsaw does.
