SNACKS

The background of the entire image is a dense, intricate pattern of coral. The pattern is composed of numerous overlapping, curved lines that form a complex, web-like structure. The lines are a light beige or cream color, set against a dark, muted green background. The pattern is most prominent at the top and bottom of the image, where it fills the entire frame. In the center, the text "REDCORAL T55" is displayed in a clean, white, sans-serif font. The word "REDCORAL" is in all caps, while "T55" is also in all caps but appears slightly larger and bolder. The overall aesthetic is modern and organic, reflecting the natural structure of coral.
