The Writers Bar is iconic to Raffles. It pays tribute to the literary luminaries such as Rudyard Kipling, Somerset Maugham and Joseph Conrad whom had resided at Raffles Singapore during the early years of 20th century, the place inspired them on some of their greatest masterpieces. At Raffles Bali, we create the Bali Sling, a homage to the Singapore Sling, which was crafted by Ngiam Tong Boon at The Long Bar in 1915 at Raffles Singapore and remain to this day as one of the most timeless cocktails in the world.

The bar's spectacular terrace the best place in the entire resort to watch the show of sky's blazing colour that accompanies the sun's disappearance below the horizon.

This bar will be known for its whimsical spiced cocktails and the destination for spectacular sunset.

THE ROOTS OF AYNAM

It's been a long time since I left this tiny island, but will never forget the richness of its nature. Well known for its tropical climate, forested, mountainous interior and endless beaches, Hainan will always be my home. The mild flavours, the freshness and awaking combination inspires me until this very day.

Ngiam Thong Boon

Vodka , galangal liqueur, carrot, lemon,

BALI SLING

Strolling around the bustling farmer's market of Bali. Across an ancient temple's courtyard. Chatters of roadside vendors luring me in with piquant aroma of spices and vibrant coloured harvests. As I stumbled upon the sight and scent of golden jackfruits in abundance. Under an old frangipani tree with its scattered fragrant blooms.

This vivid kaleidoscope was the inspiration behind my signature Bali Sling.

Nando Boon

Sipsmith Gin infuse with blue pea flower, Arak Bali, Dom benedictine, Lemon grass syrup, Lemon juice, Angostura, Jackfruit, Sour soup, Grenadine, Top up soda
