

Tutto

In the 1800s, more than 4 million Italians settled in the United States, integrating into the New World while bringing their culture and traditions with them, blending them with local influences. Thus, the Italian-American community was born — a community we have all come to know and love through its art. Now, Tutto brings this captivating world to Budapest in the form of a New York-style Italian restaurant.

Enjoy your meal!

The place where life happens — loud and full of passion.

We bring the hospitality, humor, and passion for food of New York's Italian neighborhood to Budapest. No stress — just espresso, Negroni, and spaghetti with meatballs. That's who we are.
